THE CITY FATHERS.

A Summary of What They Did Last Night.

The board of Aldermen met last night with the mayor in the chair. Ellington and Hiatt were absent.

The street committee reported in favor of accepting the strip of land tendered the city at last meeting for the extension of Lithia street to the North Carolina railroad. Adopted.

Water committee filed a report recommending the putting in of a water plug near the furniture factory, and one at northeast corner of Whittington and Ashboro streets. Adopted.

Special committee to which was referred the matter of putting drains through the McAdoo meadow made a verbal report and filed a proposition from W. D. and C. N. McAdoo, they offering to pay the cost of digging ditch and covering the same, provided the city will pay for the piping and laying the same.

W. D. McAdoo's proposition was conditional that work be commenced in 30 days from date of proposition. If not accepted within that time the proposition to become null and void. Alderman Shaw moved that the proposition of W. D. McAdoo be allowed to expire by limitation. Adopted unanimously.

W. C. McLean asked for an extension of the sewer on Forbis street to connect with his new buildings. This matter and that of connecting Lindsay street school with the sewer were referred to sewer committee.

The matter of opening Chestnut street was re-referred to street committee to confer with property owners.

Alderman J. Henry Phipps offered an ordinance requiring all riders of bicycles to have lighted lamps on their wheels while riding at night fall.

C. N. McAdoo being present had a conference with the special committee in regard to putting the drain pipe in his property in the meadow and offered to give $250 and stated that C. E. Holton would add fifty dollars to this amount to put pipe from Sycamore to and across East Market street, and the committee recommended the acceptance of the same.

Alderman Merrimon moved that the report be continued until next meeting. Carried.

Grade was established on Gaston street.

Alderman Thornton moved that the cemetery committee be instructed and empowered to cultivate the vacant land in the cemetery and that street committee be instructed to take all street sweeping and manure from stables to the cemetery for the purpose of cultivating said lands.

Adjourned.

Let Them Come.

It is with great pleasure that the Telegram hears of the probability of the establishment of new manufacturing enterprises in Greensboro. With by far the best railroad facilities in the state, with the lowest official death rate of any town above 5000 population in the state, with her excellent city and county schools she needs only diversified manufactures to place her in the lead of the industrial development of the state. We hope that our people will give all the encouragement they can to this line of our city's growth.

A Thing of Beauty.

The new Crawford wagon recently purchased by Mr. C. P. Vanstony is indeed a thing of beauty and a pleasure as well. It has regular bicycle equipment—pneumatic tires, nickel plated spokes and ball-bearing running gear. It is handsomely finished all around.

In riding in this wagon you feel no jar, the motion being so easy, so noiseless, that it suggests sleigh riding more than anything else.

We venture to say there is not another in the state like it and we congratulate Mr. Vanstony on his enterprise in adding such a vehicle to his already excellent livery.

The Orchestra Concert.

The concert at the court house last night by the Brockman orchestra was an exceedingly pleasing event, and a full house greeted the performers. Each number on the program was received with rounds of hearty applause, the violin solo by Miss Mamie Dowd being encored, as was also the male quartette, composed of Messrs. Z. V. Taylor, A. H. Alderman, R. M. Albright and Dr. Wheeler.

The ladies' quartette, which is composed of Mrs. Myra Albright, Misses Nan Wood, Helen Wheeler and Lillian Brown, will be rendered tonight. No admission fee was charged, but collection, amounting to about $25, was taken.

The concert will be repeated tonight and those desiring invitations to get them by calling at Wharton Bros. bookstore, free.

PLANS MAY BE FRUSTRATED.

McKinley's Efforts to Maintain Secrecy.

MARIX EXPLAINS THE REPORT.

Other News on the Situation Sent From the Nation's Capital City.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 26—Further information regarding the report of the court of inquiry before it is submitted to congress on Monday is not expected. However, publication of the report as cabled Minister Woodford for Spain may be made there. If the report is published at Madrid it will be immediately cabled back and the efforts of the administration to maintain secrecy until congress has been communicated with will be frustrated.

Congressmen have shown remarkable loyalty to the president in restraining their desire for radical action until the president prepares his plans. It is thought that this restraint cannot be continued longer than Tuesday or Wednesday.

If the report be allowed to go to the committee without action the administration's policy must immediately be submitted to congress or it will take the matter into its own hands. Mr. McKinley still hopes for peace.

The president has been corresponding with Sagasta's government regarding some plan of self-government for Cuba. Little is known of the plan but it provides for Cuban independence.

Rev. N. R. Richardson left today for Bessemer City.

Misses Kesler and Makepeace are visitors to Thomasville today.

Miss Minnie Coltrane, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Stanton, returned to her home in Randleman this morning.

Richard Pettiford was arrested in Greensboro and brought here on the charge of disturbing religious worship at the colored Baptist church last December. He was found guilty and sent to the county roads.

H. J. Welborn, who lost his voice some weeks ago, is very fortunate. It came back to him yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. He is one happy man today.

The High Point show case company made their first shipment yesterday. It went to Hickory.

We are glad to state that High Point is to have a bakery. They will sell their first bread today at the old bakery stand.

Prof. O. W. Carr and his son, Ernest, passed through this morning, en route to their home in Trinity to spend Sunday.

We hear that much damage was at Troy by the wind Thursday evening. The store of A. Leak & Son was blown down. The damage is estimated at $3000.

Dr. John C. Kilgo arrived in the city last night and delivered a strong lecture in the Methodist church to a large congregation on the subject of Christian Education. Dr. Kilgo returned to Durham last night.

The regular monthly representation speaking of the graded school was quite interesting and entertaining on yesterday afternoon. It is certainly one of the most profitable exercises in which students can engage. The people of High Point are to be congratulated on having their children trained in public speaking and reading right in their midst. Horner Ragan and Miss Lillie Sherrod were named by the committee for excellence. We congratulate them.

Just a Private.

There is one man in North Carolina willing to go to Cuba to fight as a private. His name is E. Merrick, of New Bern. Unlike the half a hundred volunteers who have up to this time written to the governor, Mr. Merrick does not ask for a command, but only that he be given a place as a private. He fought in the Confederate army during the late war, and was clerk of the city of New Bern in 1871. He is now about 45 years old.

Philadelphia Bank Closes.

Philadelphia, March 25—The People's Bank closed today. Clay Kumble, assistant cashier of the Guaranty's Company, was appointed receiver. There is believed to be some connection between the failure of the Guaranty's Company and the bank, but nothing can be confirmed. It is believed today that the death of Cashier Hopkins, who died yesterday, was a case of suicide. He ran the bank.

WILL HELP SETTLE SPAIN.

Great Excitement Among South Carolina Darkeys.

Charleston, S. C., March 25—W. H. Robertson, Colonel commanding the First (colored) Regiment, National Guards of South Carolina, notified Governor Ellerbe tonight that he had 1,000 negro soldiers ready to march toward Havana tomorrow.

Great excitement prevails among the South Carolina negroes.

Robertson says he can get 5,000 men in line within a week. One company has been organized and equipped. A conference of war among the officers of all the negro troops will be held Sunday, to feel the strength of the command and to make an appeal to the State government for arms, etc.

TO HALT SPANISH FLOTILLA

Orders Issued to The Fleet at Hampton Roads.

NO MESSAGES ALLOWED TO LEAVE

The Real Significance of the Report Not Yet Indicated—The Battle-ship Maine Was Moved.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 26—The wildest sort of rumors are afloat. Some to the effect that Spain has been notified that her fleet must stop, and that Schley has been ordered to have the fleet at Hampton Roads ready to halt the Spanish flotilla.

SPAIN GETTING STRICT.

Washington, March 26—Minister Stewart L. Woodford the state department that no dispatches relating to the movements of Spanish warships are permitted to leave the country. It is not known whether this embargo relates to telegrams from Woodford to this country. Both Woodford and Dyer, United States attaché at Madrid, sent dispatches Thursday. The censorship relates particularly to the torpedo flotilla.

NOT YET INDICATED.

Washington, March 26—It is learned today that the real significance of the report of the naval board of inquiry has not yet been indicated. The widely published statement to the effect that the board finds that the explosion was from the outside and that it was caused by setting off some kind of submarine mine is doubtless correct, but this statement only hints at the serious nature of the findings.

The harbor master at Havana testified that the Maine was moved from the place where she was first anchored to buoy over the spot where the explosion occurred. Whether the mine was there before the removal is not stated.

This information comes from a man who knows every word of the report. There is every reason to believe that when congress learns the facts it will be impossible to restrain the houses.

The Private Secretary.

Manager Blackburn, of the Academy of Music, has secured, for one performance, the great success of last season, the Private Secretary, with Edwin Travers and his admirable company. The Private Secretary was decidedly the best performance that was ever given in Greensboro, and while the audience last season was small, it is safe to say that it was the most thoroughly delighted one that ever left the opera house.

This season Mr. Travers will appear at the Academy of Music, and those who did not see the performance last season are unconditionally urged not to miss this opportunity to revel in the beauties of the cleanest and brightest comedy ever written. Those who were present last year will not require any advice—they will be among the very first to secure seats is a foregone conclusion. The Private Secretary is a clean, pure and wholesome comedy, and its success for this reason alone cannot be wondered at. It is a purely legitimate comedy, and deserves to stand in the very front rank of all theatrical concoctions designed exclusively for laughing purposes. Mr. Travers company last season was an exceptionally good one, and this season the assurance is given that the present organization is even superior to the company which appeared here last January.

Thursday night, March 31st, is the date for their appearance here. Seats are now on sale at the usual place, and by special arrangements the prices for reserved seats have been placed at 75 cents. No extra charge for reserving seats in advance.

A WOMAN LEAVES $40,000,000.

Inheritance Tax on Her Estate Will Reach a Million.

New Haven, Conn., March 24.—Mrs. Jane Winchester, a venerable widow of 91 and proprietor of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, said to be the wealthiest woman in the world, died at her home here today.

Fabulous estimates of her wealth are made, one statement placing it at $40,000,000. Under the inheritance tax law about $1,000,000 will come to the State by the transfer of her property to her heirs.

Mrs. Winchester leaves one daughter, Mrs. Thomas G. Bennett, wife of the president of the Winchester Arms Company. Mrs. Winchester has given two hundred and fifty thousand to Yale during the past ten years, and it is believed she has left the university a considerable legacy in her will.

CRAVEN MEMORIAL.

The Corner Stone Will be Laid at Trinity Commencement.

Rev. N. M. Jurney, the agent for the Braxton Craven memorial building, which is to be erected at Trinity College, was in the city yesterday, returning from Greensboro, where he attended a meeting of the building committee of the proposed memorial. Rev. Mr. Jurney informed the Post that he secured $650 for the memorial building Thursday last. The larger part of this amount was donated by one individual.

Mr. Jurney has agreed to give $1000 of the $10,000, which sum it is proposed to secure for the construction of the building.

Mr. Jurney says he hopes to be able to lay the corner stone of the building at the commencement exercises next June. At no distant day it is expected that work on the building will begin. The architectural plans have already been accepted.—Raleigh Post.

A Gold-Bug Trick.

Louis James is impersonating Spartacus in North Carolina. As we understand it, Spartacus was a candidate for presidential elector on the fusion ticket and was defeated. Why any one should attempt to impersonate the unfortunate man we cannot understand, unless it is a gold-bug trick.—Fairbrother's Farrago.

The credit of the bank of Spain seems to be both colossal and elastic.

The indications are that there will not be a spurt in the manufacture of pruning hooks any time soon.

Is it not a little significant that Spain should have assumed in advance that the report of the board of inquiry would be adverse to the accident theory?

Instead of importuning for public building appropriations aspiring congressmen are now putting in requisitions for long range guns and companies of artillery.

When the report of the board of inquiry is laid before congress it should not forget how eloquent was the silence with which the fifty millions for defense were voted.

The discovery of certain esteemed contemporaries that Quo Vadis is a very naughty book now that everybody, even down to the kitchen maid, has read it, is somewhat amusing.

Granting the naughtiness for the sake of peace in the family it must still be declared that naughtiness is not its worst fault.

The despatching of the Spanish torpedo flotilla from the Canaries to Cuba is a move of such a threatening nature that it cannot well be ignored by the Washington administration. Apparently Mr. McKinley has been, conscious or unconsciously, depending somewhat too much upon Spanish timidity. As the London Graphic says the time has come for the president to cease wobbling. If decisive action is to be taken the sooner the better. Any delay hereafter will be to the advantage of Spain rather than of this country. The president now has the report of the board of inquiry. He has the full details of the reconcentrado horrors. The time has come for Mr. McKinley to show the stuff of which he is made. Can there be any doubt as to what the course of Lincoln or Jackson would be under such circumstances?

The following is the final paragraph of a lengthy letter in the Winston Republican dealing with the question of removing the Federal court from here to Winston:

We only ask a fair investigation and will abide most cheerfully the result of the issue. We wish our sister town all success and prosperity, and hope our contest will be fair, open and friendly and that nothing may be said or done to leave any bitter feeling. If our people will do their duty, we will succeed, as we have merit on our side. Very truly,
R. B. Glenn.

This oily expression of fraternalism is very grateful. The opening move of the congressman from that district left no room to doubt that the contest was to be "fair, open and friendly." The pains which he took to appraise Congressman Kitchen far, in advance, that he would ask for the removal estopped even the most carping critics from criticism of the plan of battle. As to the question of merit that seems to have occurred to the congressman only at a later hour.

John Wanamaker's public declaration that if Pennsylvania politics fail to yield to his psalmody that he will be found tooting a big horn in the Quay procession shows that the honorable John launched out with a buoyant life preserver under his arm.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The current number of the College Message contains another instalment of Prof. Raper's History of Church and Private Schools. There is the same pains-taking care in regard to details and the same clearness of statement and diction that has characterized the preceding instalments. This section of the history is devoted to the Wake Forest College. It is a fruitful topic, fruitfully handled.

G. P. Putnam's Sons have decided to change the title of their translations of Alphonse Daudet's posthumous novel, "Le Soutien de Famille," from "The Wage Earner" to "The Head of the family," it being thought that the former title conveyed an idea of a labor-socialistic study, which is certainly not the theme of the book.

Hamlin Garland has written for the April McClure's "A Romance of Wall Street." It is the true story of the Grant & Ward failure, a most dramatic and panic-stirring event in its day, but now passing rapidly out of remembrance. Mr. Garland, in writing the story, has had access to new material.

"Under the Dragon Flag," by Jas. Allan, is soon to be issued in America. It is said to be a remarkably strong and realistic account of the adventures of a filibuster in the recent war between Japan and China. "In Cuban Waters," by Harriet Prescott Spofford, will be one of the stories in the May Pocket Magazine.

The Strand Magazine has just purchased twelve short stories by H. G. Wells, who has also written a very fine story for the Summer number of the Illustrated London News. Mr. Wells is of opinion that his new story, "The Sleeper Awakens," is the best that he has as yet written.

Maarten Maartens has been a guest of Mr. Barrie. Before leaving Holland Mr. Maartens finished a new novel, the title of which is "Her Memory." He is en route for Egypt, where he will take a holiday.

"Folks From Dixie" is the title of Paul Lawrence Dunbar's collection of short stories soon to be published by Dodd, Mead & Co.

The next work by Mr. W. D. Howells will be a story of American travel in Europe. It will appear first in serial form in Harper's Magazine.

Frank R. Stockton's new romance, "The Girl at Cobhurst," will be published next month.

The thirty-third anniversary of Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House is commemorated in the April Harper's by an article describing the event. The author, Gen. Geo. A. Forsyth, U. S. A., was a member of General Sheridan's staff, on intimate terms with his chief. His description of the famous meeting between General Grant and General Lee is a notable contribution to the picturesque side of war literature.

One of the most interesting stories in the April Harper's is the character sketch entitled "Primordial," by Morgan Robertson. It is a study of the development of a civilized child of an uninhabited tropical island, and gives a very humorous and sympathetic account of the unfolding of a child's mind and character in a state of nature.

George Moore has been very busy for a long time upon a novel which will appear within a month or two. Its title is to be "Evelyn Innes."

"The Gospel of Freedom," by Prof. Robert Herrick, of the University of Chicago, is the title of a novel to be published very shortly. The motif of the story is that of personal independence in its appeal especially to the restless, eager, egotistic woman of our new American civilization. This theme is worked out in the specific instance of the appeals of art and the older civilization to one who desires the most complete freedom and self-expression. The scenes are laid in Paris, Chicago and Florence.

J. Holland Rose, editor of the "Victorian Era" series and of the scholarly work on "The Revolutionary and Napoleon Era," is to write a new biography of Napoleon.

ARE IN A BAD FIX.

Correspondent Says Spanish Soldiers Condition is Terrible.

Kinston, Jamaica, March 25.—A private letter, dated three days ago, from Manzanilla, received here by a schooner, say the condition of the Spanish troops there is terrible. It adds that starvation and disease prevail everywhere and that the government forces have sustained heavy losses in recent skirmishes with the insurgents, the wounded being brought to town in cart loads.

The letter says in conclusion that even without the intervention of the United States the war cannot last two months longer.

Men Kiss Each Other.

An uncommon sight—men kissing each other—was witnessed at the Union depot yesterday. There were morning elders, of whom there is far too plentiful a supply here. Three of them, though, left yesterday for the west, and the kissing was part of their farewell to the elders and members of their flock left behind. Those who went away have been here as missionaries for three years. They are returning to Utah to be assigned to better positions in church work.—News-Observers.

Protection of the Coast.

Washington, March 24.—Captain W. P. Duval, the military aide to Secretary Alger, left the city tonight for the south on a tour of inspection of the cities and forts on the coast to which it might be necessary to send additional troops and make further improvements in case of war. One million dollars will be spent for rapid fire guns for coast defense.

Young Men Ready to Fight.

Burlington, N. J., March 24.—The announcement that Captain Thomas D. Landon would fill up the ranks in Company A., Sixth Regiment, drew a large and enthusiastic crowd to the armory last night. Young men who were willing and anxious to fight for their country were numerous, but only fifteen could be accepted. In a very short time the regiment had enrolled their names and as many more left their names and addressed to be called on if necessary.

I feel it my duty to testify to the superior merits of Rice's "Goose Grease" as a cough cure. On Friday night the 7th inst. I coughed almost the entire night. Cough syrups etc. failing to bring any relief whatever. On the following night I decided to test the virtue of your remedy by bathing my chest thoroughly with it and going to bed, and I tell you honestly I never slept sounder in my life. I take pleasure in commending "Rice's Goose Grease" to those who may be in need of a cough cure. Wishing you much success. I am Yours cordially,

A student plied a college professor with a series of questions to each of which the professor laconically replied "I don't know."

"Why," finally said the student, "I thought we were sent here for you to tell us what we don't know."

"Young man," replied the professor you are sent here for us to tell you what we know, and that is soon done. To tell you what you don't know would be an endless undertaking.

It is somewhat that way in writing advertisements, we can soon tell you what we know, or can think of, that will interest you; but if you should come down and look through you will find an endless variety of useful articles that you had no idea that we kept in stock.

Did you see the exhibit of the Universal Food Chopper a few days ago? It is a most wonderful machine. It will do as many things as a magician can perform tricks. You would be surprised to see the tricks it will do. It chops beefsteak, grinds coffee, crackers, and in fact anything you can get in it, except horse shoes, lamp chimneys and the like.
